Daniel Green
President, The Green Company

Daniel Green is President and a principal of The Green Company, a Massachusetts-based construction and development firm that creates, designs and builds award-winning residential communities.

Builder Magazine, Professional Builder Magazine, and the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) have recognized The Green Company with 11 Builder's Choice-Design awards (more than any other builder in the country), 14 Best in American Living (BALA) awards, more than 50 National Sales and Marketing awards and 5 business management and customer satisfaction awards.

Green, a third generation builder, graduated from Harvard University and earned his Master's in Business at Duke University's Fuqua School of Business. He is on the board of directors of The Newton Conservators, a local non-profit charged with promoting the preservation of open space and environmentally sensitive areas in the City of Newton, Mass. He also sits on the City of Newton Conservation Commission and was previously on City of Newton Community Preservation Committee. He was actively involved in the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) holding a number of appointed positions, including National Center on the Housing Industry trustee and chair of its education subcommittee, as well as Builder Trustee of the National Sales and Marketing Council. He was a member of the Executive Board of the Builders Association of Greater Boston, and was President of the association in 2007. Green is currently a judge and standards writer for the National Housing Quality Award, which is modeled after the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award and represents the housing industry's highest recognition for achievements in total quality management.
