Hi Amalia.

Unfortunately I don't have a current resume and can't seem to locate an old one on my computer

Briefly, I was born in 1944, graduated from St Columbkille High School in Brighton in 1962, the University of Notre Dame in 1966. I graduated from Boston University School of Law and was admitted to the Mass Bar in 1971. I served with Area Counsel's Office and Regional Counsel's Office of the US Department of Housing and Urban Development from 1971 to 1986, was an associate at the law firm of McCullough, Stievater and Polvere to 1988, and with the Regional Counsel's office of the Federal Aviation Administration to 1990. For the next fifteen years I served as Senior Regional Attorney with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

I was twice elected to the Newton Board of Aldermen and was also elected twice as a National Vice President of the National Treasury Employees Union.

I have authored two novels: "An Angry God" and a sequel, yet to be published.

I live in West Newton, am married and the father of three children and eight grandchildren.

That's my life in a nutshell.

Paul
