

Newton Cultural Development announces

Art in Bloom Newton

Artwork interpreted through fresh floral designs

Create your own artistic floral design from local garden-fresh blooms, with artwork by a Newton artist as your inspiration.

In this program, gardener and sustainable florist Susan Margolin, owner of Lotus & Lettuce, artisan floral design from seed to vase, will guide participants in interpreting artwork by Newton artist Cindy Sachs through sustainable floral design.

Participants will first enjoy an artist talk by Newton artist and architect Cindy Sachs to learn about her process and artistic inspirations, and then design a creative floral arrangement using locally grown flowers and foraged materials.

The workshop will be held on Thursday September 19th at Newton Cultural Development Office, 1294 Centre Street, Newton Centre from 6pm – 8:30pm.

Registration details:

- Each session limited to 12 participants (register early to ensure a seat).
- Participants provide their own floral vase/vessel and a few stems of their choice (twigs, branches, seed pods etc.).
- See more details and register on-line at <https://newtonma.myrec.com/info/default.aspx>.
- Registration fee of $85 includes locally grown flowers, artist talk and instruction by Lotus & Lettuce.