Newton Free Library Named Spaces

On brick wall/seat surrounding flag pole to right of	25. 14. 14. 14. 14. 14. 14. 14. 14. 14. 14
Library front door
	THE STONES USED TO CONSTRUCT THIS WALL WERE PRESERVED FROM THE 1737
	JOHN HANCOCK HOUSE ON BEACON HILL, AND REUSED IN NEWTON AT THE FORMER
	AMOS LAWRENCE ESTATE ON BEACON STREET IN 1864. THE STONES WERE DONATED TO THE PEOPLE OF NEWTON BY: BOSTON COLLEGE IN 1992.
At foot of child statue with books, to right of
Library front	IN MEMORY OF
	JULIA M. FIRST
	AUTHOR OF CHILDREN'S LITERATURE
	BY HER LOVING EAMLLY
	1996
Small boy statue to left of Library front door	(1) 1 (1) (1) (1) (1) (1) (1) (1) (1) (1
	Li'l Max Adedicated to the memory of
	Dorothy "Dot" Fitzgibbon
	March 3, 1929 October 28, 200 By Her Loving Family
	Her Life Was Greatly Enriched by Her Love for and Use of this Library
	Fom Fitzgibbon, Sculptor
At base of tree to left of Library front door
	SECUCATED IN HONOR TO SECURE
	VIRGINIA TASHTAN
	OURTRANAN
	The state of the s

Winnie the Pooh and the Hunny Pot sculpture in seating area to left of Library along Walnut Street	Winnie-the-Pook and the Hunny Pot ten the children of Newton than Strath Oliver sking selden, Seultot 2002
Bird feeder on Walnut Street side of Library	Given in loving respect for our teacher, WENITY HSU April, 2005