

Newton, Massachusetts Community Preservation Program

6 December 2010

Covenant Residences / 33 Commonwealth Avenue

B'nai B'rith Housing New England shares with the City of Newton and its Community Preservation Program an award from the Urban Land Institute.

ULI's Jack Kemp Workforce Housing Models of Excellence Award recognizes and honors developers demonstrating leadership and creativity in providing expanded housing opportunities for America's working families. For details, go to www.uli.org.

At left: Susan Gittelman of B'nai B'rith presents a symbolic revenue-sharing check to Newton Mayor Setti Warren and Community Preservation Committee Chair Nancy Grissom. (The real check for $300,000 was received in July 2009.)

At right: Current and former members of Newton's Community Preservation Committee, (left to right) Nancy Grissom, Dan Green, Tom Turner, Setti Warren, Jeff Sacks, Alice Ingerson (staff), Judy Jacobson, Andy Stern.