RECORD OF ACTION

DATE: March 1, 2004

SUBJECT: Newton Corner Branch Library – Rehabilitation/Restoration of Exterior Facades

At a scheduled meeting and public hearing on February 26, 2004 the Newton Historical Commission, by a vote of 6 to 0, passed the following motion:

RESOLVED to approve the plans for the restoration and rehabilitation of the exterior facades of the Newton Corner Branch Library according to the plans as submitted and dated 2/12/04 with the recommendation that some thought be given to replacing the bases of the existing columns as part of this project. The Commission also supports the replacement of the original porch railing as it is important to the restoration of the historic appearance of the building.

Voting in the Affirmative: John Rodman, Chairman; Leonard Sherman, Nancy Grissom,
Rodney Barker, William Roesner, Donald Lang

Lara Kritzer, Acting Secretary
