

Acknowledgements

The City of Newton wishes to thank the following people and organizations for their assistance and contributions in the preparation of this Plan.

Students from the Conway School of Landscape Design (Rowan Cignoni, Cara Montague, and Samantha Peikes) for helping to coordinate public input and draft this Plan update with revised text and maps.

Jennifer Steel and Claire Rundelli (Environmental Planners for the City of Newton) for shepherding the Plan update process, providing updated information, supporting for the Conway School students, and editing the final drafts.

Open Space and Recreation Advisory Committee (listed alphabetically below with name and affiliation) for leading the open space planning effort and offering valuable input.

- Nicole Banks (Commissioner of Parks, Recreation, and Culture)
- Al Cecchinelli (Parks, Recreation, and Culture Commission)
- Jayne Colino (Council on Aging)
- Rick Dinjian (Newton Little League)
- Quinn Etchie (Youth Commission)
- Jini Fairley (ADA Coordinator)
- Nicole Freedman (BikePed Connectivity/Complete Streets/Transportation)
- Doug Greenfield (GIS)
- Michael Halle (Transportation/BikePed Connectivity)
- Barney Heath (Director of Planning and Development)
- Gabriel Holbrow (Community Planning)
- Susan Lunin (Conservation Commission/Community Preservation Commission)
- Luis Perez Demorizi (Parks, Recreation & Culture Dept.)
- Carol Schein (Parks, Recreation & Culture Dept.)
- Justin Traxler (Newton Girls Soccer)
- Beth Wilkinson (Newton Conservators/Tree Conservancy/Urban Tree Commission)
- Jonathan Yeo (City of Newton Executive Office)
- Jeff Zabel (Agricultural Commission/Conservation Commission)

All residents who responded to the online survey (administered by students from the Conway School), responded to the Youth Survey (administered by Quinn Etchie), attended one or more of the public forums (led by students from the Conway School), attended one or more of the public hearing/meetings of the Zoning and Planning Committee and Planning and Development Board, or submitted individual comments on the draft Plan.

This page is intentionally left blank.