THE CITY WILL BE COMING TO TALK
ALL THINGS ZERVAS

This Thursday, March 9, 7:30pm

at the Waban Library Center

In conjunction with the Waban Area Council

7PM: The usual monthly Zervas building community update
with the construction team

7:30pm: A City Presentation on the administration's current approach to Beethoven, the intersection with Beacon, and the City's approach going forward.

Representatives of the City's

Transportation Department, Police Department, Parks and Recreation Department, School Committee and City Council, will be present to elaborate on current construction plans and to take questions.

This meeting will not be about gathering public input per se.

Another opportunity for public comment will be to send an email to the Public Facilities subcommittee before its next meeting on the Zervas project and the signals (within a month).
