CITY CLERK
NEWTON, MA 02459

Honorable City Council
Newton City Hall
1000 Commonwealth Avenue
Newton, MA 02459

Dear Honorable City Councilors,

I respectfully submit this docket item to this Honorable Council requesting a change to my Police Chief Selection Committee appointments.

Hattie Kerwin Derrick will start as the new Director of Community Engagement and Inclusion in the Mayor's office on January 11, 2021. As she will be a City employee working directly for me, I think it is best that I withdraw my appointment of her as one of the two "Citizens of the City of Newton" members on the Police Chief Search Committee.

As a reminder, Chapter 279 of the Acts of 1992 lays out the process for selecting a new Police Chief in the City of Newton. Section 5 of Chapter 279 specifies that a nine-person selection committee be established to assist in the selection process, six of which are to be appointed by the Mayor and two of those are to be Citizens of the City of Newton.

In accordance with Chapter 279 section 5, I am appointing another citizen member to the Police Chief Selection Committee to you for your approval.

Citizen of the City of Newton: Alison Tarmy, a Newton resident, is a licensed social worker with a Master's Degree in Public Health. For the past 16 years, Alison has served as the Director of Client Services for the Domestic Violence Services Network (DVSN). In this role, she partners with 12 police departments in Central Middlesex County and her office is located within the Bedford Police Department. Alison currently serves on the Newton Police Reform Task Force.

As you will see from the attached resume, Alison Tarmey brings a wide range of experience to this important selection process.

As the Police Chief Selection Committee is due to begin meeting in the new year, I ask for your expediated attention to this request.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,

Mayor Ruthanne Fuller

ALISON TARMY, LCSW, MPH

CITY CLERK
NEWTON, MASS. 02459
October 26, 2020

Dear Honorable City Councilors,

Chapter 279 of the Acts of 1992 lays out the process for selecting a new Police Chief in the city of Newton. Section 5 of Chapter 279, attached here, specifies that a nine-person selection committee be established to assist in the selection process, six of which are to be appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by the City Council. This selection committee shall recommend to the Mayor five to seven candidates for the position of Chief of Police.

In accordance with section 5, I am submitting my appointments to the Police Chief Selection Committee to you for your approval.

As you will see from their attached resumes, this group brings a wide range of experience to this important selection.

Business Executive of the city of Newton: Marcela Merino Domínguez, a Newton resident, has extensive experience in the business world, and currently serves on Newton's Economic Development Commission as well as Newton's Community Education Commission.

Attorney: Joshua Levy, a Newton resident, has deep experience in the legal world, and currently serves on the Newton Police Reform Task Force.

Member of the Judiciary: Judge Paul Chernoff, a Newton resident, has had a long career presiding over the Massachusetts Superior Court as well as the District Court of Newton.

Member of the Massachusetts Police Chief's Association: Chief William Brooks, Police Chief in the town of Norwood, served as the President of the Massachusetts Chiefs of Police Association and brings 43 years of experience in law enforcement.

Citizen of the city of Newton: Hattie Kerwin Derrick, a Newton resident, is the Chair of Newton's Human Rights Commission and currently serves on the Police Reform Task Force.

Citizen of the city of Newton: Michelle Leung, a Newton resident, has great insight into the role of police given her role at the Department of Justice.

Representative of the Newton Police Association: As you will see from Chapter 279, Section 5 (3), a representative of the Newton Police Association (NPA) is to serve on the selection committee. They have selected Officer John Panica.

Both the NPA and I are pleased that the Newton Police Superior Officers Association will also be at the table. Their representative will be Lieutenant Damien Doucette. In keeping with Chapter 279, the NPA will have the sole vote for the two groups.

The President of the City Council will be docketing her two choices for this committee.

Warmly,

Massachusetts Acts of 1992

Chapter 279. AN ACT EXEMPTING THE POSITION OF CHIEF OF POLICE IN THE CITY OF NEWTON FROM THE PROVISIONS OF THE CIVIL SERVICE LAW.

SECTION 5. For all subsequent appointments, a selection committee of nine persons shall be established to assist in the selection process. The committee will be made up as follows:

- (1) One member of the board of aldermen, appointed by the president and subject to the approval of said board of aldermen.
- (2) One Newton citizen appointed by the board of aldermen under the same process as clause (1).
- (3) One representative of the Newton Police Association, appointed by said association.
- (4) One business executive of the city of Newton.
- (5) One attorney.
- (6) One member of the judiciary, active or retired.
- (7) One member of the Massachusetts Police Chiefs Association, except a former police chief, from the city of Newton.
- (8) Two citizens of the city of Newton.

Committee members appointed in clauses (4) to (8), inclusive, shall be appointed by the mayor and approved by the board of aldermen in accordance with the procedures set forth in section 3-3 of the charter of the city of Newton. Every effort shall be made to include not less than four women on the selection committee.
