

Time for Partners – Music Instructor

Description:

Time for Partners (TFP) is an art & music program for children 18 months to 4 years (with an adult). Our Time for Partners program fosters the creative in all of us! Come enjoy the many hands-on art activities, imaginary play, and creative movement so crucial to early development. Classes are offered Monday through Thursday mornings from 9:30 – 11:30am for six weeks from September 13 – October 25.

Newton Cultural Development is seeking a talented and enthusiastic music instructor to develop and lead appropriate music lessons and sing-alongs for children aged 18 months – 4 years old and their caregivers. The ideal candidate would be able to teach and facilitate general music education while providing a safe, fun, learning environment where all students can be successful.

This is a contractual position, no benefits provided.

Qualifications:

- Background in Music and/or Music Education
- Experience developing engaging music lessons for youth and young children
- Knowledge and understanding of early childhood development
- Prior teaching experience at the Pre-K level
- Enthusiastic, creative, and flexible
- Highly organized and self-motivated
- Bilingual strongly preferred

Pay Rate: $75/1 hour class

How to Apply: Email cover letter and resume to Paula Gannon, Director of Cultural Development at pgannon@newtonma.gov.

Deadline: July 30, 2021
