

Mental Health: Crisis Intervention Panel

June 1st, 2022

SUMMARY

The City of Newton Health & Human Services Department hosted a Crisis Intervention Panel with representatives from the Newton Police Department, Riverside Emergency Services, Samaritans, Inc., Families for Depression Awareness, Newton-Wellesley Hospital, and the Newton Social Services Department. The panelists discussed mental health crises, how to access services in Newton and what to expect when you reach out for support.

FIND SUPPORT

Riverside Emergency Services
1-800-529-5077

Newton Police Department
9-1-1 (emergencies)
617-796-2100 (business)

Newton-Wellesley Hospital
617-243-6193
2014 Washington Street
Newton, MA 02462

Samaritans, Inc.
Suicide Prevention
Call or text 877-870-4673 (adults)

Hey Sam: Peer-to-peer support
Text 877-832-0890 (up to 25 years-old)

Families for Depression Awareness
Resources for Parents & Teens
www.familyaware.org

Newton Social Services
Case Management Support
617-796-1420

WHAT TO EXPECT

Watch the full recording of Mental Health: Crisis Intervention Panel or skip to the clip times below for more information on each topic. *The chat box is also viewable and contains additional resources.

- At the Newton-Wellesley Hospital Emergency Department: 19:31, 36:30, 55:30
- When you call the Newton Police Department: 16:47 & 47:28
- When you need financial assistance and other resources: 22:29
- When you request a crisis evaluation from Riverside: 27:44
- When you or a loved one needs to find a therapist: 58:40
- If you are a teen and reach out to 'Hey Sam' (Samaritans Resources): 32:17
- If you are a teen who wants to share your mental health journey: 42:32
- If you are a parent, caregiver, or friend who needs resources for a child, loved one or neighbor: 25:40 & 1:01:57

City of Newton, MA

Public Health
Prevent. Promote. Protect.